

Connecting to MediaCityUK by bus

MediaCityUK is served by a number of dedicated bus routes offering journeys to Manchester City Centre, Salford Crescent and other destinations in South Manchester. It is easy to connect to bus services to MediaCityUK at both Piccadilly Gardens in Manchester City Centre (25 minutes on X50) and at Salford Crescent Station (20 minutes on CityConnect50).

From the bund (outside the marketing suite):

(SMS – MANTPGAM to Manchester/Pendleton and MANGJMTA to Stretford)

CityConnect50: MediaCityUK to Salford Crescent Station, Manchester City Centre and East Didsbury. Every 10-15 minutes.

79: MediaCityUK to Pendleton, Swinton and Stretford. Every 30 minutes.

From outside the Imperial War Museum North:

(SMS – MANTPGPD to Manchester, MANTPGPA to The Trafford Centre)

X50: Express service from Manchester City Centre to the Trafford Centre. Up to Every 15 minutes.

245: Altrincham, Sale, Urmston and the Trafford Centre. Every 30 minutes.

Travelling off-peak: early mornings, evenings and weekends

Off peak travel options are important at MediaCityUK to cater for the range and nature of businesses located at the development, as well for residents and visitors. The following table provides a summary of the public transport services available at off-peak times.

The Connect City X50 bus service to Salford Crescent, Manchester Piccadilly and East Didsbury provides an excellent alternative to the tram with services every 15 minutes from outside the MediaCityUK marketing suite on the Bund.

...bus services are delayed or suspended – you can ring Traveline on 0871 200 2233 and/or text the number of the bus stop to 84268 to find out the next timetabled bus services. The unique bus stop numbers are provided on the bus stop flag signs. Bus passengers to Manchester City Centre can use the Metrolink as an alternative.
